Terms of Exhibition:

1. Display: the Artist hereby consents to:
 - a. The submission of the attached piece of original artwork (giclée prints OK) for display in The Loft Gallery at Buck's Fifth Avenue for the month(s) of March and April 2017. The Artist has sole ownership of the art, but The Loft will retain 25% of the proceeds if the art is sold. The artist is responsible for immediately retrieving unsold art at the end of the display period.
 - b. Producing art that is ready to hang in a gallery setting, with hooks and wire attached for hanging. [Note: some special hanging considerations may apply.] Pieces for the window mullions do not have to be framed.
 - c. Delivery of artwork, along with this completed Gallery Exhibit Agreement, to The Loft (or the Spice Shop downstairs) no later than Friday, March 30.
 - d. Release of gallery liability for accidental damage to the artwork; every effort will be made to secure and protect the artwork from harm of any kind.
 - e. Retrieving the artwork after the show by Saturday, June 2 (or make other arrangements with the show's curator, Sally Penley)
2. Marketing: In conjunction with showing the Artist's work, The Loft will provide:
 - a. Title tags and supporting signage in The Loft Gallery for the Artist and artwork.
 - b. Other marketing opportunities as they occur in local publications and PR venues.

Terms of Sale

The Artist determines the sale price of each piece and retains 75% of the proceeds from the sale of the artwork, with 25% of the sale proceeds going to The Loft Gallery.
