

Design Course Prerequisites

For the purpose of being comfortable participating in this class, students must have an intermediate to advanced level of calligraphy/hand lettering skill. An intermediate student of calligraphy is someone who:

- Has had at least three recent years of experience studying calligraphy/lettering
- Has experience of completing at least seven pieces of finished work
- Is comfortable and confident in at least three different styles of calligraphic writing
- Is willing and able to share their work in a classroom setting

In addition to these things, prerequisites for students of this class include:

- Ability to commit to doing monthly homework assignments and weekly online exercises
- A willingness to be vulnerable, share who they are, and to communicate their needs
- Able to participate in the online component of the class (on CourseCraft.net)

When registration opens you will need to email 3-4 examples of your artwork to Cora.

If you are not sure if you meet these prerequisites, or you almost meet them, you can contact Cora to see if the class is a good match for you or not.
